9.1 Definitions

9.1.1 Absence
Time away from working duties and/or work location during required periods of service.

9.1.2 Authorized Absence
Absence which is taken in accordance with this Agreement.

9.1.3 Administrative Officer
For the purpose of notification of absence or leave, the appropriate Area Dean or the College President is the administrative officer at the college.

9.1.4 Immediate Family
Mother, father, grandparent or grandchild of the employee or of the employee's spouse or domestic partner; and step-mother, step-father, spouse, domestic partner, son, son-in-law, step-son, daughter, daughter-in-law, step-daughter; brother, brother-in-law, sister, sister-in-law, aunt or uncle of the employee; child or sibling of domestic partner; wife or husband of domestic partner's child; or any person living in the immediate household of the employee.

9.1.5 Industrial Accident or Illness
Illness or injury which is supported by a physician’s or approved practitioner’s certificate which qualifies under State Workers’ Compensation Insurance as being work connected.

9.1.6 Parental Leave
Parental Leave means leave for reason of the birth of a child of the employee, or the placement of a child with an employee in connection with the adoption or foster care of the child by the employee (Ed. Code §87780.1(f).

9.2 General Conditions Applicable to All Leaves with Pay

9.2.1 Notification to Administrative Officer
The employee shall notify the appropriate Area Dean or College President of the reason for the leave and the amount of time to be involved. When the absence cannot be anticipated in advance, the appropriate administrative officer shall be notified of the reason for the absence and the estimated time required at the employee’s earliest reasonable opportunity.

9.2.2 Documentation Required
The administrative officer may require documentation from a physician supporting the employee’s need for absence. Documentation shall be required for any absence in excess of ten (10) days. A physician is any person licensed as a physician or designee, nurse practitioner, surgeon, physician’s assistant or psychiatrist by the Medical Board of California or by the California Board of Dental Examiners to practice medicine and to prescribe controlled medications. Also covered is treatment by a chiropractor as specified in the Labor Code.

9.2.3 Report of Absence
Upon termination of absence, the employee shall complete the Cumulative Absence Report – Certificated Employees form stating the reason for absence. (See Appendix C)

9.2.4 Gainful Employment Disallowed
An employee shall not be allowed to undertake any gainful employment while absent unless specifically authorized by the Board. The employee may be required to certify that he/she was not gainfully employed.

9.2.5 Salary Compensation
Employees who are absent from work during required periods of service shall be entitled to salary compensation during the period of such absence as expressly provided by this Agreement.

9.2.6 Failure to Return to Duty
An employee who fails to return to duty upon completion of a leave of absence may be dismissed by the District unless such employee was unable, due to causes beyond his/her control, to return to duty, in which event the employee may report the circumstances as soon as he/she is able to do so.

9.2.7 Effect of Paid Leave on Continuity of Service
Periods of paid leave shall not be considered a break in service.

9.3 Sick Leave
Absences due to the illness of the employee may only be charged to sick leave on assigned duty days.

9.3.1 Compensation
Sick leave shall be available for all faculty on the first day the employee is to report to work.

9.3.2 Accrual of Paid Sick Leave
Faculty shall earn paid sick leave as follows:
9.3.2.1 Ten-month full-time employees shall be entitled to ten (10) days of paid sick leave for each academic year earned at a rate of one (1) day per month.

9.3.2.2 Less than full-time (100%) employees shall be entitled to paid sick leave in proportion to the ratio of his/her work hours and work months to full-time faculty employment.

9.3.3 Unused sick leave may be accrued indefinitely and upon retirement may be added to retirement benefits depending upon STRS regulations in effect upon retirement.

9.3.4 Employees on leave of absence for reasons other than illness or injury will maintain accrued paid sick leave but, with the exception of sabbatical leave, will not earn additional paid sick leave during the period of leave.

9.3.5 Payment of Paid Sick Leave

9.3.5.1 A regular faculty member shall be paid at the regular salary rate during the period he/she is using accrued paid sick leave. A regular faculty member who has used all accrued sick leave will be advanced as much sick leave as the employee could earn during the remainder of the academic year. Sick leave payment for adjunct faculty and long-term temporary employees is provided only as earned.

9.3.5.1.1 Please refer to Section 9.3.8 for provisions related to the use of sick leave for maternity/paternity reasons.

9.3.5.2 If absence because of illness or injury extends beyond the foregoing allowance, the employee may be eligible for “five month law” benefits (Education Code §87780). If the employee provides the District with an acceptable medical verification, the employee shall be compensated at the rate of fifty percent (50%) of the employee’s regular salary, commencing with the date that the paid sick leave terminated and ending five (5) months after the original absence. The benefit provided in this article shall not be cumulative from year to year nor shall an employee be credited with more than one (1) entitlement of the “five month law” benefit for a single illness or injury. This benefit is available to the employee whether or not he/she is placed on long-term personal leave for health reasons by the Board. Long-term temporary employees are not eligible for this benefit.
9.3.6 If an employee leaves the service of the District after having been paid more sick leave than has been earned, a deduction for such excess sick leave pay shall be made or recovered from the final salary payment. If the adjustment for excess sick leave payment is discovered after the distribution of the final salary payment, other repayment provisions shall be arranged between the employee and the District.

9.3.7 Transfer of Sick Leave
A faculty member, who has completed at least one (1) year of service in another California public school district and has not been dismissed for cause, and who is hired by Los Rios within one (1) year of employment with the former district shall have accumulated sick leave transferred to this District (Education Code §87782). Such transfer for regular faculty shall normally happen within one year of accepting employment with the District.

9.3.7.1 The District will include notice of the adjunct faculty’s right to transfer sick leave to Los Rios from another school district or community college district at the time of employment with Los Rios.

9.3.7.2 For regular employees, sick leave transferred from another district will be credited to either the regular or overload leave accrual bank dependent upon how it was earned in terms of regular or adjunct/overload service in the former district(s).

9.3.8 Maternity/Paternity Reasons

9.3.8.1 An employee shall be granted one (1) day of paid leave at the birth of his/her child or at the time of legal adoption of a child or the day of adoptive placement of a child. This leave is in addition to the leave provided below. This leave is not deducted from any leave category and may be used in lieu of one (1) day of sick leave per allowances provided in Sections 9.3.8.2.

9.3.8.2 The following provisions specify the use of sick leave for maternity and paternity reasons. Please refer to Sections 10.2 and 11.7.2.1.1 for additional provisions for maternity/paternity and child care leaves.

9.3.8.2.1 An employee shall have the right to utilize accrued sick leave for absences necessitated by pregnancy, miscarriage, childbirth and recovery there from. The employee will submit a physician’s statement to the appropriate Area Dean verifying the period of time (with beginning and ending dates) that the employee was temporarily disabled.

9.3.8.2.2 A faculty member shall have the right to utilize up to thirty (30) days of accrued sick leave to care for and or bond with his/her newborn child within the first year of birth, less any days previously used in that year for Personal Necessity (Ed. Code §87784.5). The use of this accrued sick leave in addition to the one (1) day provided under Section 9.3.8.1 above. Whenever possible, members shall give advance notice of utilization of this leave. When advance notice is not possible, employee will notify his/her supervisor within twenty-four (24) hours of the commencement of the leave.

9.3.8.2.3 A faculty member who is adopting a child shall have the right to utilize thirty (30) days of accrued sick leave for the purpose of caring for the needs of a newly adopted child within the first year of adoption, less any days previously used in that year for Personal Necessity (Ed. Code §87784.5).

9.3.8.2.4 Parental Leave – An employee who has worked for the District for 12 months may use up to 12 workweeks of sick leave for parental leave to bond with their newborn or newly adopted child. When an employee has exhausted all available sick leave and continues to be absent from his or her duties on account of parental leave, the employee shall be compensated no less than 50 percent of the employee’s regular salary for the remaining portion of the 12-workweek period on parental leave. This leave shall run concurrently with leave provided under the California Family Rights Act (Ed. Code §877801.1) and with leave provided in 9.3.8.2.2 and 9.3.8.2.3.

9.3.8.2.4.1 Parental leave means leave for reason of the birth of a child of the employee, or the placement of a child with an employee in connection with the adoption or foster care of the child by the employee (Ed. Code §87780.1 (f)).

9.3.8.2.5 The District shall comply with all applicable state and federal laws pertaining to family care leaves.

9.3.8.2.6 Type C Leaves of less than a full semester may be used to supplement maternity/paternity leave under the provisions of Section 9.3.8.2 only (see Section 11.7.2.1.1).

9.3.9 Health Leave Requirements

9.3.9.1 If an absence due to the illness of the employee exceeds ten (10) days, the employee is required to apply for a health leave.

9.4 Personal Necessity Leave

9.4.1 Six (6) days of accrued sick leave may be used during any fiscal year by the employee in cases of personal necessity. Personal Necessity Leave shall be limited to circumstances that are serious in nature that the employee cannot reasonably be expected to disregard, that necessitate immediate attention, and that cannot be taken care of after work hours or on weekends. Examples of appropriate use of Personal Necessity Leave are religious observances of the employee's faith and illness of immediate family members (see Section 9.1.4). Personal Necessity Leave is available to regular faculty (164 day work year) and adjunct and overload faculty during the fall and spring semesters. For regular faculty working a 174 day work year, the leave is available for use during the defined work period. Personal Necessity can be used during the summer term but without additional accrual. Long-term temporary employees are eligible for this leave for the employment period that he/she is working in the temporary position.

9.4.2 The employee, whenever possible, should submit written request for Personal Necessity Leave to the employee's supervisor prior to the requested leave (except as noted in Section 9.4.3). Approval for the leave must be received from the employee's supervisor prior to commencement of the leave.

9.4.3 The employee shall not be required to secure advance permission for leave taken for any of the following reasons:

9.4.3.1 Death or serious illness of a member of his/her immediate family.
9.4.3.2 Accident involving his/her person or property, or the person or property of a member of his/her immediate family.

9.4.3.3 Imminent danger to the home of the employee when the danger requires the attention of the employee during his/her assigned hours of duty. Such danger may be occasioned by flood, fire, earthquake or be of other serious nature and under such circumstances as cannot reasonably be disregarded by the employee.

9.4.4 Additional Uses of Personal Necessity Leave
These six (6) days of accrued sick leave may be used by employees to supplement:

9.4.4.1 Critical Illness Leave (See Section 9.8)

9.4.4.2 Judicial Appearance Leave when the employee is required to appear as a litigant or as a witness when the appearance is not brought about by the misconduct of the employee

9.4.4.3 Bereavement Leave

9.4.5 The employee must submit a completed Cumulative Absence Report – Certificated Employees form to the immediate supervisor upon returning to service.

9.5 Industrial Accident and Illness

9.5.1 The District will maintain insurance for the benefit of the faculty who sustains a personal injury in the performance of the job assigned by the District. Industrial accident or illness is defined as an illness or injury supported by a physician’s or recognized practitioner’s certificate and qualifying as being work-connected in this District.

9.5.2 Faculty members shall be granted industrial accident and illness absences with full pay for each such accident or illness. Allowable leave shall not exceed sixty (60) working days for the same accident. Allowable leave shall not be cumulative from year to year. When an industrial accident or illness occurs at a time when the full sixty (60) days will overlap into the next fiscal year, the employee shall be entitled to only that amount remaining at the end of the fiscal year in which the injury or illness occurred. (Education Code §87787)

9.5.3 Industrial accident or illness absence shall commence on the first day of absence from work and shall be reduced by one (1) day for each day of authorized absence regardless of any temporary disability award.
9.5.4 During industrial accident and illness absence, the employee must remain within the State of California, unless specifically authorized to travel elsewhere by the Chancellor.

9.5.5 Employees are expected to exercise due care in performing their duties and to report all hazardous conditions to their immediate supervisor.

9.5.6 Should an employee sustain a personal injury on a job with this District, the employee shall notify his/her supervisor as soon as is reasonably possible.

9.5.7 Benefits cannot be paid to an injured employee unless the report of the accident has been filed by the employee with the supervisor and the employee has been examined by a physician or recognized practitioner within a reasonable time after symptoms have been observed.

9.5.8 The District has the right under terms and conditions of the District insurance program to have the employee examined by a physician or recognized practitioner designated by the District to assist in determining the length of time during which the employee will temporarily be unable to perform assigned duties and the degree to which a disability is attributable to the "injury or illness involved."

9.5.9 When entitlement to industrial accident/illness leave has been exhausted, entitlement to earned sick leave will then be used. If an employee has less than three (3) years of service, earned sick leave shall be used.

9.5.10 If an employee is receiving a compensation award, the person shall be entitled to use only as much of sick leave as, when added to the compensation award, will provide for a regular day’s pay.

9.5.11 During any paid industrial accident and illness absence, the employee shall endorse to the District the temporary disability indemnity checks received. The District, in turn, shall issue the employee appropriate warrants for the payment of not more than full salary less normal retirement and other authorized contributions.

9.5.12 All disputes arising in compensation cases shall be remedied according to law.

9.6 Quarantine Leave
An employee who is quarantined by county health officers shall receive salary entitlement during the period of enforced quarantine. If the employee is not ill, no deduction will be made from accrued sick leave. Quarantine Leave is available to regular faculty (164 day work year) and adjunct and overload faculty during the fall, spring and summer terms. For regular faculty working a 174 day work year, the leave is available for use during the defined work period. Long-term temporary employees are eligible for this leave for the employment period that he/she is working in the temporary position.

9.7 Bereavement Leave
Each unit member shall be granted necessary time off with salary entitlement not to exceed three (3) working days, or five (5) working days if out-of-state travel is required, in the event of the death of any member of the employee’s immediate family, as defined in Section 9.1.4. (Education Code §87788) (See also Section 9.4.) Bereavement Leave is available to regular faculty (164 day work year) and adjunct and overload faculty during the fall, spring and summer terms. For regular faculty working a 174 day work year, the leave is available for use during the defined work period. Long-term temporary employees are eligible for this leave for the employment period that he/she is working in the temporary position. The employee must specify the relationship of the deceased on the absence report. If out-of-state travel is required, the destination must also be specified.

9.8 Critical Illness Leave

9.8.1 All regular, adjunct, and overload faculty shall be granted three (3) days per year salary entitlement in the case of critical illness or accident of a member of the immediate family.

9.8.2 The District may require the employee to attach to the Cumulative Absence Report – Certificated Employees form a written statement from the attending physician or recognized practitioner attesting to the need of the employee to be present during the period of critical illness of the immediate family. (Refer also to Personal Necessity Leave in Section 9.4.)

9.9 Jury Duty Leave

9.9.1 All regular, adjunct and overload faculty who are called for jury duty will be granted a leave of absence with salary entitlement for such daily time as is necessary to complete jury obligation. Leave time for jury duty applies to normal court hours and/or when the jury is in session only. Long-term temporary employees are not eligible for Jury Duty Leave.

9.9.2 The employee will notify his/her administrative officer of the notice to appear for jury selection.

9.9.3 Payment for Services While on Jury Duty
The employee serving on jury duty will receive salary entitlement from the District provided the employee signs over and remits all compensation received during the paid leave of absence for such jury duty, exclusive of mileage, meals, and lodging, to the District.

9.10 Judicial Appearance

One (1) day of leave will be allowed for a regular/adjunct/overload employee to make a mandatory court appearance as a litigant or as a witness (see Section 9.4). Judicial Appearance Leave is available to regular faculty (164 day work year) and adjunct and overload faculty during the fall, spring and summer terms. For regular faculty working a 174 day work year, the leave is available for use during the defined work period. Leave time for judicial appearance applies to normal court hours and/or when the jury is in session only.

9.11 Personal Business

9.11.1 Each full-time contract/regular employee may be granted a maximum of two (2) days per academic year to resolve business-type matters which require attention during work hours and which are the responsibility and rightful concern of the individual. Unused personal business days do not accrue or carryover from one year to the next. Personal Business Leave is available to regular faculty (164 day work year) during the fall and spring semesters only. For regular faculty working a 174 day work year, the leave is available for use during the defined work period.

9.11.2 Personal Business Leave is to be used for activities that the employee could not reasonably be expected to accomplish during non-duty times. Financial or legal appointments are appropriate uses of Personal Business Leave. Personal or professional travel or recreational activities are not appropriate uses of Personal Business Leave.

9.11.3 The unit member who takes a Personal Business Leave assumes the responsibility for meeting all professional obligations, including presenting to students the material missed as a result of the absence. It is required that the appropriate administrator be advised that Personal Business Leave will be taken. Advance notification is expected except under extenuating circumstances.

9.12 Short-Term Military Leave

Regular faculty, regular faculty teaching overload assignments, and adjunct faculty members whose district service and recent military service total one (1) full year may be granted a short-term leave for the period of ordered duty providing it does not exceed 180 calendar days (including time involved in going to and from such duty) in one (1) fiscal year.

Eligible faculty members, when temporarily called to active duty or for the purpose of attending field-training exercises, shall be entitled to be paid their regular salary for the first thirty (30) calendar days of absence for the workdays he/she is absent from the District. The duty must occur during a paid status month of the employee’s work year and the District salary payment will be offset by salary compensation received from the military service. In order to receive the difference in pay, the employee must submit a copy of their military pay stub to the Employee Benefits Department.

To qualify for the benefits provided, the unit member must forward a written request for leave, accompanied by a copy of the field order, to the appropriate college administrator prior to reporting for training or duty unless ordered to report immediately. Preferred adjunct and regular faculty overload assignments are eligible for the paid leave benefit if a request for assignment was submitted prior to the date of the field order. Non-preferred adjunct faculty must have received an assignment to be eligible for the paid benefit.

9.13 Paid Catastrophic Sick Leave

Employees may be eligible for additional sick leave benefits as outlined below.

9.13.1 Five Month Law Benefit Program

The program will provide faculty, who have exhausted all sick leave (sick days) and enter into the five month law program, full pay and medical benefits for up to thirty (30) days under five month law.

9.13.2 Extended Paid Catastrophic Sick Leave

This program extends the leave for faculty who have exhausted all sick leave benefits including five month law and are still unable to return to work, either partially or fully, and who are not eligible for disability, workers’ compensation, or other benefits.

9.13.2.1 Faculty who qualify for this benefit program must apply and be approved by the Paid Health Leave Committee.

9.13.2.2 Faculty who are on full medical leave will be eligible to apply for up to fifty percent (50%) salary and full medical benefits for a period of no longer than one (1) semester (82 days).

9.13.2.3 Faculty who are on partial health leave will receive up to an additional fifty percent (50%) salary supplement above the partial earnings with a total salary limit (partial earnings plus salary supplement) of one hundred percent (100%) salary. The faculty member will also receive one hundred percent (100%) medical benefits. This salary and medical benefit will be for a period of no longer than one (1) semester (82 days).

9.13.3 The provisions of Section 9.2 apply to the Paid Catastrophic Sick Leave program.
9.13.4 The funding for the unit’s share of the costs for this program shall be charged to one-time lottery revenues distributed to the unit as part of the proportionate share calculation as specified in Appendix A.

9.13.5 Definitions

For purposes of this section, the following terms are defined as follows:

9.13.5.1 Catastrophic Illness or Injury
Catastrophic illness or injury means an illness or injury that is expected to incapacitate an employee from work for an extended period of time, and taking extended time off work creates a financial hardship for the employee because he or she has exhausted all of his or her eligible sick leave and other paid time off and is in less than full pay status.

9.13.5.2 Eligible Employee
An eligible employee is a permanent employee of the District who is not receiving benefits under the District’s Industrial Accident and Illness program and who is not eligible for or receiving benefits from the District’s Disability Income Protection program. An eligible employee is further defined as an employee who due to catastrophic illness or injury is in less than full pay status.

9.13.6 Catastrophic Illness or Injury Committee
A Catastrophic Illness or Injury Committee shall oversee the Extended Paid Catastrophic Sick Leave program.

9.13.6.1 Committee Composition
The Committee shall be composed of three (3) voting members with two (2) members appointed by LRCFT, and one representative from management. The Associate Vice Chancellor, Human Resources or designee, shall serve as the chair of the Committee. The Committee shall have access to resource staff as deemed appropriate by the Committee in discharging their responsibility.

9.13.6.2 Release Time
Committee members will be provided release time without loss of compensation and benefits, including a reasonable amount of travel time to and from the member’s work location, to attend official meetings of the Committee.
9.13.6.3 Committee Charge
The Committee will be charged with oversight of the Extended Paid Catastrophic Sick Leave program, including approval or disapproval of applications for Extended Paid Catastrophic Sick Leave. The decisions of the Committee shall be final. Committee deliberations are confidential and decisions on approving or disapproving a requested leave shall be made by majority, secret vote of members present. In order to approve or disapprove a requested leave, a quorum of the Committee, defined as two (2) or more voting members, must be present to vote.

9.13.6.4 Committee Limitation
The Committee may not approve an Extended Paid Catastrophic Sick Leave that exceeds the available funding.

9.13.7 Application for Extended Paid Catastrophic Sick Leave
An eligible employee may apply for Extended Paid Catastrophic Sick Leave by submitting an application for such leave to the Associate Vice Chancellor, Human Resources. Applications for the Extended Paid Catastrophic Sick Leave will be reviewed and acted upon by the Catastrophic Illness and Injury Committee. In order for an application to be acted upon, a Release of Medical Information form must accompany the application.

9.13.7.1 Physician Statement Required
A physician’s statement verifying the employee’s incapacitation must accompany the application for Extended Paid Catastrophic Sick Leave.

9.13.7.2 Length of Leave
The length of an Extended Paid Catastrophic Sick Leave shall not exceed one semester (82 days), commencing from the first day that the employee is in less than full pay status.

9.13.7.3 Requirement to Exhaust All Eligible Paid Leaves
An eligible employee must have exhausted all eligible paid leaves, including accrued sick leave, and be in less than full pay status to qualify for an Extended Paid Catastrophic Sick Leave.
